If you require articles for either an article directory or ones which aren't as in-depth as we would normally write, using our Trainees; Juniors Writers or Writers would be an excellent option for you. This would also include articles which are written in list format.

Articles within the 200 – 300 word range are perfect for blog posts.

If however, you prefer to pay per word, this will be calculated on the basis of the person who is employed to write for you, and the word count.

- Price on Application
